

High Fives 2026 NFL Weekly Pick'em Pool

Entry Fee:

$5, payable when you submit your sheet

Payout:

Winner takes all (e.g. # of Entries x $5)

Rules:

- Each week constitutes a new pool. You may play as many sheets as you like.
- Each entry costs $5, which goes into the pot paid to that week's winner(s).
- To enter, fill in the weekly sheet by making your pick for each game. The goal is to pick the winning team. Note: any games not picked on the sheet will be counted as a loss.
- You must provide the total points scored in one of the week's final games. This will be used as a tiebreaker. (the specific game will be identified on the weekly sheet with an asterisk - *) Note: if no score is provided on your sheet, you will be given a score of 1. (one)
- The winner for each week will be the player with the most correct picks.
 - In the event of a tie, the player whose selected total points are closest to the actual point total of the tiebreaker game will win.
 - Should any players still be tied after applying the tiebreaker, the pot will be divided equally among those players.

Please confirm your entry by submitting your sheet to your server, including your name, contact info (email and/or phone) and $5.

Please contact one of the Pool Organizers if you have any questions or concerns.
